About the Consumer Bankers Association

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) is the only member-driven trade association focused exclusively on retail banking, representing some of the nation's largest financial institutions, including JPMorgan Chase, Bank of America, Wells Fargo, and Citigroup. Whether buying a home, financing an education, or launching a small business, since 1919, our members have partnered with consumers to help them achieve the American dream. Taken together, CBA's corporate member institutions account for 1.7 million jobs in America, extend roughly $4 trillion in consumer loans and provide $275 billion in small business loans annually.
